Congressman Alphonzo Bell will be guest speaker Thursday at a joint membership luncheon of the Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club and the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce. The meeting will be held at noon in the Banbury Room of the Plush Horse. Congressman Bell will deliver a non-partisan report on the last session of Congress and what can be expected in 1964.

Cub Pack 953-C

Cub Scout Pack 953-C held its December meeting at Perry School. Members of the pack exchanged gifts and then broke open a pinata in the shape of a Christmas ball. Awards for the month also were presented. Boys getting December awards were: Joe Melillo, Steve Leger, and Jim Benton, round up patches; John Ransdell, Robert Warne-muende, Brad Caldwell, and Jim Benton, gold arrows; and John Ransdell, Tom Hayduk, Elias Altene, and Jim Benton, silver arrows.

Bobcat pins were presented to Carl Junemann, John Scheeze, and Sam Ness, while wolf badges, and a webelo badge and a boy scout handbook were given to John Ransdell.

One year pins were won by William LaFay, Steve Kleinhans and Elias Altene. Den-ner stripes were given to Tommy Hayduk and Brad Cald-well, while Rocky Marley won his assistant denner stripes.

Manhattan Beach and El Se-gundo. A resident of Los Angeles, he is a member of the pioneer Southern California family which developed Santa Fe Springs, Bel Air and Bell.

PRIOR TO HIS election to Congress, he was president and later chairman of the Bell Petroleum Co. board of directors. He also participated in many cultural, philanthropic and civic improvement projects in the Los Angeles area.

Reservations can be made for the luncheon by contacting the chamber office at FR 5-0554.

BELL'S FIRST Congressional

assignment was membership on the Science and Astronautics Committee. Today he is also a member of the Educational and Labor Committee. He is the only member of his party from California serving with either committee.

Congressman Bell is a World War II Veteran of the Air Corps and is presently a Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force Reserve. He is a graduate of Occidental College in Los Angeles with a degree in political science.

In his 1962 campaign for re-election, he was returned to the House of Representatives with a plurality of more than 70,000 votes.

Retarded Children Talk Set

Fred J. Krause, executive director of the California Council of the National Assn. for Retarded Children, will address the delegates at a regional meeting of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International Sorority Jan. 16.

Arrangements for Krause's address were made by the Southwest Assn. for Retarded Children, which serves the entire southwest area.

The sorority has dedicated itself to helping the retarded children of the state. Regular financial aid has been provided by the members to the California Council, and members of local chapters have volunteered their services to local groups such as SARC.

The meeting will be held in Lakewood, will be attended by about 80 members of the sorority and members of SARC.
